

Red Widow Spiders like to live in the folded leaves of Scrub Palmettos, where they can hide to escape hungry Scrub-Jays. This spider is rare and shy, and has never bitten a human, but its bite is known to be venomous. Red Widows mostly eat beetles found only in the scrub.